OVERVIEW

23' Nautic Star 2004 230 Sport Deck

The Nautic Star 230 Sport Deck presents a broad, open layout crafted for effortless entertaining and relaxed days on the water. It tracks with smooth, confident manners whether cruising the harbor or towing family for watersports, while the stable deck-boat platform softens the ride when conditions turn choppy. Generous seating and thoughtful storage heighten comfort for long outings, blending space, versatility, and approachable performance in a well-rounded 23-foot package.

This example was prepped for the season but not used and will benefit from general cleaning. Seating shows worn stitching and tears. The hull, engine, and trailer appear to be in good shape.

Included is a Ventura double-axle trailer.

No statement of condition can be made regarding motors, engines, or machinery; buyers should inspect to determine actual condition. Do not assume accessories or equipment are included if not seen with the vessel. Offered as-is, where-is, with no warranties expressed or implied. Subject to prior sale, price change, or withdrawal without notice. All offers respectfully considered.
