OVERVIEW

The Azimut Yachts 35 Metri is offered for sale—a luxury megayacht from Italian builder Azimut Yachts, recognised for innovative design, strong build quality, and advanced technology.

Selecting an Azimut Yachts 35 Metri

Our broker assists in choosing the right 35 Metri, arranges a technical inspection, organises a sea trial, verifies documentation and service history, and provides legal support for the deal.

Features of the 35 Metri Model

The Azimut Yachts 35 Metri is a megayacht with three decks, a flybridge, composite hull, hardtop, and five cabins. Panoramic glazing brings in plenty of natural light and wide views.

Built from the 2010s onward, the model is now found mainly on the used market. It sits in the Grande range, which offers roomy interiors, high comfort, and strong performance.

The 35 Metri delivers upscale comfort for owner and guests: large salons, a fitted flybridge zone, a practical cockpit, and refined styling inside and out.

Popular alternatives: Gulf Craft Majesty 100 - calmer performance, more interior space; Horizon Yachts FD110 Tri-Deck - comparable layout, distinct styling; FERRETTI CUSTOM LINE 112 - more traditional; GULF CRAFT MAJESTY 155 - bigger, less agile; FERRETTI CUSTOM LINE NAVETTA 33 - expedition-oriented, with focus on range.

The Azimut Yachts 35 Metri leads rivals with its contemporary look, speed, sensible layout, and premium finishes.

Technical Specifications of the Azimut Yachts 35 Metri Model

The 35 Metri blends power, comfort, and elegance. Diesel engines deliver speed and dependability on long passages.

Three decks give varied spaces: from a formal salon to an open deck with barbecue and jacuzzi. The hardtop shelters the flybridge for all-weather use.

Key parameters:

- Length: approx. 35 m
- Hull: composite

Questions & Answers

How reliable is the 35 Metri model? The model has a strong reputation for reliability owing to solid construction and proven tech. Consistent maintenance supports a long life.

What are the investment prospects? Azimut megayachts hold value well versus many peers. The 35 Metri stays in demand for its design and comfort, which helps liquidity.

What is important when choosing a used model? Check service history and the state of engines, hull, and interiors. A complete document set is also essential.

Is the yacht suitable for charter? Yes. Its space and luxury make the 35 Metri a good charter candidate. Returns depend on season and area.

Is customization possible? On the used market, scope is limited, but certain finishes and equipment can be updated for the new owner.
