OVERVIEW

Bajavento captures the essence of the Sphinx's legendary attributes: wisdom, determination, courage, and discretion. Embarking on Bajavento is an invitation to cultivate these qualities and, as the legend suggests, achieve a state of enlightenment.

Originally crafted as a bespoke yacht for ocean racing, Bajavento underwent a remarkable transformation in 2001, emerging as a high-performance cruiser perfect for open-sea adventures and romantic getaways, thanks to its exquisite interior redesign.

This yacht has been a vessel of exploration and transformation for three different owners. In 2008, she made a transatlantic journey with a crew of ten, leaving her mythical origins behind to embrace new horizons with her current owner.

Now, Bajavento is poised to make your dreams a reality.

Designed for shorthanded sailing, Bajavento is perfect for couples seeking solo voyages or families desiring leisure and excitement on the open waters.

Outfitted with Raytheon electronics at both the helm and navigation station, she ensures a seamless sailing experience.

This sailing yacht boasts dual cockpits: an aft helm cockpit with twin wheels and a guest cockpit. The guest cockpit is an ideal spot for relaxation and socializing, featuring a dinette and sun pads. Forward, a sun pad doubles as tender storage while underway. The aft swim step provides easy access to the water and tender. Inside, the yacht's spacious interior is a haven of comfort, adorned with finely crafted woodwork and light-colored furnishings. A large central wooden table, surrounded by beige leather settees, a navigation station, and a flat-screen TV with CD and DVD player, complete the luxurious setting.

The well-appointed galley includes an electric stove, oven, refrigerator, freezer, microwave, and icemaker, perfect for preparing gourmet meals, as was done during the 2008 Atlantic crossing.

Bajavento accommodates guests in three staterooms. The master stateroom, located aft, spans the full beam and features a double bed, a separate single bunk, and an en-suite bath. The guest stateroom offers a centerline double bed and an adjoining bathroom. A third stateroom with an en-suite bath is situated at center starboard.

Additionally, the yacht provides crew accommodations in the forward forepeak.
