OVERVIEW

This 2004 Sabre 386 is a beautifully designed sailing yacht that perfectly combines speed, comfort, and timeless elegance. Known as a "gentlemen's racer/cruiser," this model offers impressive velocity alongside luxurious living spaces. The Sabre 386 strikes an ideal balance between manageable dimensions and ample room, with its elegant lines and well-crafted hull making it a standout in both form and function.

With a flexible sail plan, the Sabre 386 provides thrilling performance whether you're leisurely cruising or racing. Its expertly engineered design, featuring a balanced spade rudder and moderate displacement hull, ensures a stable and responsive experience in diverse weather conditions.

Step inside to discover a cabin layout that exudes sophistication and practicality. The handcrafted joinery and meticulous attention to detail create a welcoming ambiance. The main saloon offers plush seating, a well-equipped galley with modern conveniences, and a navigation station complete with essential instruments.

Accommodations on the Sabre 386 include a spacious owner's cabin at the front, featuring a generous V-berth, ample storage, and a vanity sink. Aft, you'll find a well-appointed cabin for guests or family. The interior is bathed in natural light, thanks to strategically placed hatches and ports.

Constructed with premium materials and expert craftsmanship, this 2004 Sabre 386 exemplifies the brand's dedication to creating yachts that endure. Whether you're in the market to buy a yacht for exhilarating sailing adventures or seeking a luxurious escape on the water, this Sabre 386 offers an enticing mix of performance, comfort, and timeless style. Explore yacht sales in the current boat location to make this exceptional vessel yours.
