Owner Experience Review

Owners describe the LUSSO25UCA from BARLETTA as a luxury-leaning family day boat with a notably spacious layout. The Ultra-Lounge configuration and upscale finishes come up repeatedly, with many calling it one of the roomiest options in the 25-foot tritoon class. Helm ergonomics and upgraded electronics are also appreciated, especially on longer social cruises and weekend entertaining.

On the water, feedback centers on matching the boat with sufficient horsepower. When fitted with higher-output Mercury Verado power, owners and reviewers report a peppy feel and confident cruise for its size, with typical tritoon stability in calm to moderate chop. Several owners do caution that early ownership can include dealer visits for warranty items—often fit-and-finish or minor electrical/equipment fixes—though some also report prompt parts replacement and support.

Pros and Cons

• Ultra-Lounge seating and upscale finishes deliver a genuinely comfortable, social layout.
• Feels peppy and cruises well when powered with higher-horsepower Mercury Verado engines.
• Helm ergonomics and electronics are praised for ease of use and comfort.
• Stability reflects typical 25' tritoon behavior, softening moderate chop but transmitting larger waves.
• Performance and responsiveness depend heavily on selecting sufficient horsepower.
• Some owners report early-service items and warranty fixes shortly after delivery.
