OVERVIEW

Commanding the water with Italian pedigree and American poise, this 100-foot luxury motor yacht blends the sleek lines of Stefano Righini with the refined interiors of Franco & Anna Della Role to deliver an effortlessly glamorous cruising experience. From her broad 22-foot beam and luminous salon to her alfresco aft deck and beach club style swim platform, every space invites lingering. Above it all, a truly huge flybridge steals the show—an entertainer's dream complete with a Jacuzzi, generous sunpads, and a fully equipped bar for elevated sunset soirées. Located in the United States and priced for a super quick sale, she offers rare access to superyacht comforts within the coveted category of premium motor yachts.

Underway, low hour Caterpillar inboard diesels deliver confident performance, with an easy 18 knot cruise and up to 22 knots on tap, pairing spirited speed with the autonomy of substantial fuel and water capacities for extended coastal or island hopping itineraries. Her hand laid fiberglass monohull construction imparts reassuring strength and a smooth ride, while the thoughtfully arranged interior welcomes up to ten guests in exceptional comfort, supported by five heads for effortless privacy. Dedicated crew quarters for four across two cabins ensure discreet, professional service. With its flowing indoor outdoor living, designer finishes, and a flybridge oasis that rivals far larger superyachts, this elegant flybridge motor yacht stands out as a turn key opportunity—attractively priced for immediate sale and ready to be admired on short notice.
