OVERVIEW

M/Y LEGACY is a 105 foot Gulf Craft delivered in 2017 and presented for sale at AU$7,500,000, an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking a high-performing commercial motor yacht in Australia. Surveyed and compliant with AMSA standards, LEGACY holds certification to carry up to 105 guests for cruising, placing her among the highest-capacity superyacht charter vessels on Sydney Harbour and making her an exceptional choice for luxury events and corporate entertaining.

Designed to perform equally as a revenue-generating charter vessel and a sophisticated private cruiser, she offers ample overnight accommodation for 12 guests across five staterooms, paired with generous crew quarters and a dedicated crew mess—an uncommon provision in the 100 foot category. Her internal volume is remarkable, nearly double that of many earlier yachts of similar length, delivering enhanced comfort, storage and liveability throughout. Notable features include a panoramic sky lounge, an expansive social area on the bow and premium Bang & Olufsen audio visual systems. With low engine hours and immaculate presentation, LEGACY is a turnkey business proposition and a refined private yacht in equal measure, perfectly suited as a commercial event yacht, luxury motor yacht or corporate charter flagship on Australia's East Coast.

My legacy

M/Y LEGACY, the 105-foot Gulf Craft launched in 2017 and now offered at AU$7,500,000, presents an exceptional opportunity to acquire a high-performing commercial yacht in Australia. Maintained under AMSA survey and licensed to accommodate up to 105 guests for cruising, LEGACY ranks among the largest-capacity charter yachts on Sydney Harbour, making her a compelling platform for luxury events and polished corporate functions alike. Conceived for both commercial success and private indulgence, LEGACY provides spacious overnight accommodation for 12 guests in five staterooms, complemented by expansive crew areas and a dedicated crew mess that elevate service efficiency and discretion. Her remarkable volume—nearly double that of older yachts of comparable length—translates into superior comfort, generous circulation, and exceptional usability throughout, ensuring guests enjoy both privacy and sociability in equal measure. Highlights abound, from a refined sky lounge and expansive bow entertaining area to high-end Bang & Olufsen AV and sound systems that envelop every gathering in cinematic clarity, while low engine hours and a pristine overall condition position LEGACY as a lucrative business proposition that still delivers the hushed luxury, privacy, and ease expected of a first-class private yacht. The full-beam owner's stateroom, set forward on the main deck, is bathed in natural light through panoramic windows and appointed with a king-size bed, a walk-in wardrobe, and a luxurious en-suite bathroom featuring dual vanities, a rainfall shower, and premium finishes. On the lower deck, two elegant guest staterooms each offer a double bed and a private en-suite, ensuring personal comfort and seclusion, while two versatile guest cabins with twin single beds plus Pullman berths provide flexible sleeping arrangements and each enjoys its own en-suite bathroom—ideal for families, additional guests, or charter parties requiring extra berths. A fully equipped main-deck galley fitted with Miele appliances and abundant storage is equally adept at intimate family service and high-tempo charter catering, and immediately adjacent a guest laundry with Miele washer and dryer adds welcome convenience for longer itineraries. Purpose-built for efficient charter operations, the crew domain is neatly divided: forward on the lower deck are two twin crew cabins with bunk-style twin beds, shared bathroom facilities, ample storage, and a dedicated crew laundry with washer and dryer for crew use and guest overflow; aft, the captain's cabin benefits from a private en-suite, while a spacious, well-equipped crew mess and lounge foster comfort, morale, and seamless service flow. Above, the sky lounge on the upper deck forms a luminous sanctuary with floor-to-ceiling windows, plush seating, and a premium AV suite, perfect for relaxed afternoons or elegant evening receptions, and the main salon's open-plan design blends luxurious seating and refined finishes with effortless access to the formal dining area, which graciously seats up to 10 guests in complete comfort. Outdoors, the aft deck invites lingering alfresco dining with a bar, lounge seating, and a crane to manage tenders and toys, while the foredeck's generous sunpad and seating create a magnetic stage for sunset cocktails and sociable gatherings. At the waterline, LEGACY is engineered for seamless access and adventure: a dedicated toy garage keeps gear organized, and a hydraulic swim platform lowers into the sea for effortless launching of tenders, jet skis, and water toys; the extended platform becomes a stable, expansive terrace for swimming and watersports and can also be elevated to the perfect height for an exhilarating jump-off, adding a playful flourish to every day on the water.
