OVERVIEW

Horizon RP110

This description outlines a model specification for a new construction and not an existing yacht offered for sale. For details on this model and current build opportunities, please inquire with Horizon Yachts USA.

Conceived by JC Espinosa, the Horizon RP110 raised-pilothouse superyacht is designed to maximize sightlines, pairing sweeping panoramic windows with flowing sheer and style lines to form a sleek, contemporary silhouette. She radiates refined elegance, and her double-chine hull by naval architect Donald Blount delivers superb seakeeping, enhanced stability, and optimized hydrodynamics to curb resistance and elevate overall performance for a luxury motor yacht of this class.

A broad array of interior configurations and amenities highlights the adaptability of the Horizon RP110 yacht platform as well as Horizon's prowess as a bespoke custom yacht builder. With a 25-foot beam, the RP110 grants expansive living, dining, and entertaining areas on every deck, creating a generous superyacht environment for coastal or bluewater cruising in the utmost comfort and luxury.
