OVERVIEW

Horizon RP110

Please note that this description outlines a model specification for a new construction and does not depict an actual vessel available for purchase. For more information about this model and its construction availability, please contact us.

The Horizon RP110 luxury yacht, envisioned by the esteemed JC Espinosa, is designed to provide stunning vistas through its large, sweeping windows that complement its graceful lines, creating a modern and chic profile. This yacht exudes elegance in both design and appearance—its double chine hull, crafted by naval architect Donald Blount, guarantees outstanding sea performance, offering stability and enhanced hydrodynamics to minimize drag and boost overall efficiency.

The wide array of layouts and features available to clients underscores the versatility of the Horizon RP110 yacht model, as well as Horizon's dedication to bespoke luxury yacht building. With a spacious 25' beam, the Horizon RP110 offers abundant living and entertainment spaces on each deck, enabling cruising in unmatched comfort and luxury.
