DETAILED DESCRIPTION

M/Y Akiko, an extraordinary 34-meter explorer yacht

M/Y AKIKO is a distinguished 34-meter explorer crafted to carry guests to the most secluded coral atolls with effortless poise. Celebrated for her adaptability and design excellence, she invites up to 10 guests into generous living areas framed by full-height windows that present uninterrupted panoramic seascapes. The interior reflects meticulous attention to detail, offering a succession of vibrant, individually curated spaces that combine sophisticated comfort with character, while her sleek, sturdy exterior lines convey an unmistakable spirit of adventure. Built by Alloy Yachts in 2007, AKIKO was honoured with five awards at the 2008 World Superyacht Awards, recognition of her outstanding naval architecture and craftsmanship. Beyond refined onboard living, she is equipped for serious angling, featuring a spacious cockpit fitted with fridge/freezers and live bait tanks, and a broad 7.8-metre beam that delivers interior volume and deck space more commonly found in a thirty-five-metre superyacht—affirming AKIKO as the perfect synthesis of elegance and expedition.
