OVERVIEW

Evolving the lineage of its predecessor, the Majesty 112 Terrace combines advanced naval architecture with interiors by Phathom Studio to present a semi-displacement luxury motor yacht conceived for expansive indoor-outdoor living, effortless open-air entertaining and long-range cruising. The 112-foot profile is defined by a sculpted, dramatic silhouette, generous floor-to-ceiling panoramic glazing and uninterrupted teak-laid decks that together forge an intimate connection with the sea.

The upper deck is designed as a true terrace lifestyle arena, with over 140 square meters dedicated to alfresco leisure. A 40-square-meter open-air terrace forms the centerpiece, appointed with a fully equipped bar, open-air dining and flexible seating that converts into broad sunbeds beneath a protective hardtop. Above, a 20-square-meter Sky Lounge on the bridge deck is wrapped in sweeping 270-degree glass to frame cinematic vistas, while the foredeck offers a private retreat with a plush U-shaped settee, oversized sunpads and a picturesque plunge pool.

Inside, the open-plan main salon basks in natural light thanks to low-profile bulwarks and nearly 40% more glazing than is typical for yachts under 100 feet, creating a bright, airy living space. Formal interior dining accommodates up to 12 guests and flows effortlessly aft to a sociable cockpit designed for comfortable seating of 10. The full-beam owner's suite, positioned forward on the main deck, serves as a serene private sanctuary with panoramic windows, a generous walk-in wardrobe, a dedicated study and a spa-inspired en-suite; an artful overhead skylight draws filtered daylight from the bow plunge pool into the cabin below.

A thoughtfully extended stern swim platform enhances life afloat, incorporating stowage for a 4m+ tender and jet skis so waterside adventures are ready at a moment's notice. Uncommonly generous for a yacht of this scale, accommodations comprise six cabins arranged to welcome 12 guests, supported by crew quarters for up to seven. Purpose-built as an elegant tri-deck cruiser, the Majesty 112 Terrace marries performance and poise with lifestyle-rich amenities to deliver a modern superyacht experience.
