OVERVIEW

A study in contemporary Italian elegance, this 117-foot luxury motor yacht was built in 2021 and designed to turn every passage into an occasion. Marrying the renowned design pedigree of Sanlorenzo with the serene, tactile refinement of a Liaigre interior, she exudes a quiet confidence—polished, poised, and effortlessly modern.

Her broad 26-foot beam delivers generous volumes and a wonderfully open onboard experience. Expansive glazing floods the main salon with Mediterranean light, while meticulously curated materials and textures—Liaigre's signature—create an atmosphere that is at once minimal and deeply inviting. Thoughtful spatial flow ensures a natural transition from indoor salons to sun-bathed exterior lounges, encouraging long, leisurely days at sea and elegant evenings under the stars.

Built in composite GRP with fiberglass craftsmanship, she combines strength and sophistication with low-maintenance practicality. A shallow draft of 6.43 feet invites you closer to secluded anchorages and luminous coves, opening up itineraries that many larger superyachts simply can't access. Twin Caterpillar diesel engines deliver a composed ride, cruising comfortably at 11 knots with the ability to surge to 19 knots when the horizon beckons—an ideal balance of efficiency and spirited performance.

Designed for extended escapes, her substantial fuel and water capacities support weeks of relaxed cruising, whether meandering along Italy's storied coastline or island-hopping in crystalline waters. On deck, there is abundant space for sun-lounging, shaded relaxation, and elegant alfresco dining. At water level, seamless access encourages spontaneous swims and effortless days spent drifting between sea and shore.

Accommodations are tailored for up to eight guests, with six beautifully finished heads ensuring privacy and comfort. Three crew cabins with berths for six professionals support the discreet, anticipatory service that completes the luxury experience—allowing every moment aboard to feel easy, personal, and unhurried.

Refined, restrained, and impeccably built in Italy, this 2021 superyacht captures the essence of contemporary yachting: design that feels timeless, performance that inspires confidence, and spaces that elevate every gathering. A standout in the luxury motor yacht category—equally suited to family cruising and sophisticated entertaining—she presents an exceptional opportunity for those who value craftsmanship, composure, and unmistakable style.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Sophistication afloat

Sanlorenzo yacht Penta, launched in 2021, is a poised blend of design and technology that feels effortless at sea. A sleek exterior profile by Zuccon sets a confident, refined tone—sporty and chic, perfectly suited to a Mediterranean backdrop. Inside, the Christian Liaigre décor is contemporary and clean, with neutral tones that invite calm and highlight the quality of every surface. Accommodating up to 10 guests in five cabins, Penta offers a thoughtful variety of spaces to ensure comfort from sunrise to sundown, whether cruising between bays or lingering at anchor. Presented VAT paid under the Italian leasing scheme, she brings clarity and convenience to ownership without diminishing the pleasure of the experience.

Cool. crisp. clean.

The timeless interior is uncluttered and design focused, with the unmistakable Liaigre touch: natural tones and luxury materials brought together for a crisp, considered finish. Generous lounge seating and a dining area in the main salon set the scene for easy conversation, while a cosy skylounge offers a more intimate retreat. The layout is intuitive and inviting, prioritizing comfort with no compromise to style, so every moment on board feels as composed as it looks.

Peace and serenity

Five cabins are designed to optimize space and light, with natural wood finishes enhancing the calm ambiance on board. Minimalist lighting and smooth, uninterrupted surfaces continue the clean aesthetic throughout. The principal cabin adds thoughtful practicality with an office area and direct access to the foredeck sunbathing zone, creating a private flow from quiet work to open air relaxation.

Variety and versatility

Design details and contrasting wood finishes carry the aesthetic onto the open decks, where each area is arranged to maximize moments of fun, relaxation, and effortless entertaining. Large forward sunpads invite unhurried sunbathing, while the sociable sun deck—with abundant lounging space, a well placed bar, and a jacuzzi—becomes the natural gathering point for spending quality time with those you love.
