Experience the Pinnacle of Sea Going Elegance: 2026 164 ft Steel Yacht for Sale in Italy

Step aboard a resplendent 2026 steel yacht stretching 164 ft, a refined expression of contemporary naval craftsmanship now offered for sale amid the luminous waters of Italy. This vessel marries graceful lines with purposeful engineering, delivering an environment equally suited to languid, sunlit cruising and to bold passages across open seas.

A generous beam of 30 ft creates expansive exterior decks and voluminous interior spaces, inviting sun-soaked lounging, alfresco entertaining, and effortless movement from bow to stern. The substantial steel hull promises long-lasting strength and a calm, steady motion through waves, underscoring the yacht's assured seaworthiness. Noted at a gross tonnage of 499 pounds, her build conveys a substantial presence and a promise of luxury aboard.

Propulsion comes from two robust CAT inboard engines, chosen to provide dependable power and efficient performance for extended voyages.
