OVERVIEW

This immaculate 2020 Williams SportJet 520, with approximately 80 engine hours, presents a rare combination of athletic performance and yacht-quality refinement in a compact tender that slips neatly into superyacht garages and sits perfectly on swim platforms. Built by Williams Jet Tenders, the 17'1" (5.20 m) SportJet 520 is driven by a Rotax 4-TEC 200 hp package mated to a jet-drive propulsion system, delivering lively acceleration, precise steering and the added safety and shallow-water access that make beach landings and close-quarters tender work straightforward. The cockpit is thoughtfully laid out with generous seating and exceptional maneuverability that turns docking and ship-to-shore transfers into a pleasure, while the light gray tubes, premium white upholstery and teak-effect sole create a crisp, contemporary interior finish befitting a luxury yacht tender. Designed without staterooms and offered in turnkey condition, this high-spec RIB has been meticulously maintained and is ready to enhance a motor yacht or serve as a refined, high-performance runabout for coastal cruising. Located in Florida and available for inspection, this low-hour SportJet 520 is an outstanding opportunity for buyers seeking a first-class tender; serious inquiries are welcome.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

2020 Williams SportJet 520 | Only 80 hours

Built by Williams Jet Tenders in 2020, this SportJet 520 distils the brand's best attributes into a compact luxury tender, pairing meticulous construction with assured performance, exceptional handling and abundant seating within a 17'1" (5.20 m) overall length. Presented in excellent condition and clearly cared for with attention, the boat is dressed in light gray tubes, premium white upholstery and elegant teak style decking that together produce a clean, contemporary and refined look. Motivated by a Rotax 4 TEC 200 hp powerplant, the SportJet 520 provides lively acceleration, crisp control and an engaging helm feel; its jet propulsion and jet drive configuration further enhance maneuverability and safety while making shallow water operation and yacht side work effortless—qualities that define a top tier tender. This 2020 example shows approximately 80 engine hours, features a purpose built open deck plan with no staterooms, and offers a spacious seating arrangement combined with outstanding agility. Model: SportJet 520. Engine: Rotax 4 TEC 200 hp. Engine hours: approximately 80. Located in Florida and in excellent overall condition, this low hour SportJet 520 is an exceptional chance to acquire a refined yacht tender that also performs beautifully as a stylish and capable recreational boat; serious inquiries and inspections in Florida are welcome.
