Section name

Kick off your adventures with the Sea Ray 180 Sport, a craft crafted for those who seek thrills on the open water. This lively vessel is equipped with a high-powered 3.0L Alpha I MCM stern drive engine, promising an exhilarating journey each time you embark. Steering is effortless with the power-assisted system, offering seamless and agile control. The Sea Ray 180 Sport prioritizes comfort with its expertly designed bucket seats, ensuring both elegance and support for you and your guests. Visually, this boat captivates with its optional gel-coat graphics, adding a dash of sophistication to its streamlined appearance. Beyond aesthetics and performance, it features practical elements like an integrated swim platform, allowing for easy access to the water for a refreshing dip. With all the essentials for an ideal day at sea, simply step aboard and set off on your adventure!

Propulsion

The Sea Ray 180 Sport is equipped with a powerful MerCruiser engine, namely the 3.0L Alpha I MCM Stern Drive, which boasts an impressive 135 horsepower. This inboard/outboard engine configuration strikes an ideal balance between performance and efficiency. The stern drive design guarantees smooth and agile maneuvering, making it perfect for both relaxed voyages and more exhilarating escapades on the water. Running on gasoline, this propulsion system is crafted to deliver both dependability and strength, ensuring that each outing is as delightful as the previous one.

Specifications

The Sea Ray 180 Sport is a nimble yet roomy craft, featuring an overall length of 17.5 feet and a beam of 7 feet, making it ideal for both cozy gatherings and energetic excursions on the water. With a maximum draft of 2.92 feet, this boat is crafted to handle various water conditions effortlessly. Weighing a dry weight of 2,100 pounds, it achieves a harmonious balance between stability and nimbleness, ensuring a smooth journey. This adaptable vessel can comfortably host up to seven passengers, making it perfect for family outings or trips with friends. The deadrise at the transom is set at 19 degrees, ensuring a stable and comfortable ride even in rougher waters. Fuel efficiency is another highlight, with a fuel tank capacity of 21 gallons, allowing for longer voyages without frequent stops for refueling. The Sea Ray 180 Sport is engineered to provide an ideal combination of performance, comfort, and practicality for all your boating adventures.
