OVERVIEW

"Current price" is a benchmark; all respectful offers are welcome.

The 2007 Sea Ray 185 Sport is a refined and athletic 19-foot bowrider and runabout, ideally suited to family outings, watersports and leisurely days afloat with friends. The cockpit fosters sociable comfort with swivel helm and companion seats, a plush aft bench and a cushioned bow lounge, while thoughtfully placed storage compartments keep equipment neat and within easy reach. Confident propulsion provides effortless pulls for skiing and wakeboarding, and the boat's sporty hull delivers engaging, responsive handling. Distinctive appointments include a sweeping wraparound windshield, an extended swim platform fitted with a fold-down ladder, quality stainless-steel hardware and an ergonomically laid-out helm with clear instrumentation, combining practicality with striking presence. This sought-after 19-foot bowrider represents an attractive opportunity.

For its year she presents well and is ready for days of cruising and tow-sports enjoyment; she appears ready to be used as shown, and viewings are welcomed—bring your offer. A trailer is not included with the sale.

Nationwide transportation can be arranged upon request, with quotes available, and custom cradles and delivery to port for overseas shipment can be coordinated to ease export logistics. Additional trailer options may be sourced separately through regional partners if required.
