OVERVIEW

Delivered by Benetti in 2009 and penned by Massari Design in collaboration with Stefano Natucci, the elegant displacement motor yacht ANDIAMO marries generous interior volume with a modest 3-metre draft and a 10.4-metre beam within a 996 GT hull, creating a yacht that welcomes secluded anchorages without compromising bluewater composure. MLC compliant, fitted with low engine hours and carefully adapted for wheelchair access, she presents both modern safety standards and thoughtful accessibility.

Formerly campaigned as LADY LUCK and LADY LARA, ANDIAMO brings a distinguished charter history to her current ownership. For the past five years she has been used privately, during which the owner has invested in excess of €15 million. Maintained with regular, comprehensive annual yard periods, she is offered in true turn-key condition with full class compliance.

Designed to host up to 12 guests across six staterooms and supported by a professional complement of 15 crew, the yacht's interior layout is both gracious and practical. A two-level, full-beam owner's suite on the main deck includes a private office, a sumptuous ensuite bath and a separate observation lounge, while four guest cabins are arranged on the lower deck and seven crew cabins sit aft. The bridge deck accommodates a VIP stateroom alongside the Captain's cabin, resulting in an efficient and highly liveable superyacht arrangement.

Exterior living is a defining feature: the expansive sun deck is appointed with a Jacuzzi, an open-air gym and ample sunbathing terraces, and both the bridge deck and the deck below provide alfresco dining options. At the waterline a fold-out transom converts into a beach club for effortless sea access, complemented by a tender garage stocked with an array of water toys.

Propelled by twin MTU engines and equipped with zero-speed stabilisers for ultimate comfort at anchor, ANDIAMO offers a 6,000-nautical-mile range at 10 knots, a comfortable cruising speed of 12 knots and a maximum speed of 16 knots — equally capable of transatlantic passages or serene Mediterranean cruising.
