Discover the ultimate fusion of power, adaptability, and elegance with the 2014 Robalo R227. This dual console vessel is crafted to excite and designed to motivate, transforming your expectations of a day spent on the water.

Whether you're casting for the day's prize catch or enjoying a leisurely cruise with loved ones, the R227 is built to provide a memorable experience.

Central to the R227 is its outstanding hull design, ensuring a smooth and dry journey even in rough waters. Driven by a 200HP Yamaha engine, this boat marries strength with elegance, allowing you to swiftly and comfortably reach your preferred destinations. The expansive cockpit and generous bow area offer ample space for everyone to relish the voyage without feeling cramped.

Fishing aficionados will value the built-in live bait well, rod holders, and abundant storage for all their equipment. For those who prioritize relaxation, the R227 delivers with a cozy bow seating area, a handy swim platform with a ladder for effortless water access, and a stereo system to provide the soundtrack to your escapades.

Safety is paramount in the Robalo R227's design, featuring high freeboards, deep gunnels, and a self-bailing cockpit to keep you and your companions safe wherever your adventures lead. Furthermore, the boat's sturdy construction and premium materials ensure durability and longevity, making it a smart investment for years of pleasure.

The 2014 Robalo R227 effortlessly combines fishing capability with luxurious comfort, making it the perfect choice for the discerning boater in search of a versatile craft that excels in every way. Experience the Robalo R227 and embark on your next journey with assurance and elegance.

Overview

Vessels like the R227 exemplify why dual console outboards are among the most sought-after on the water today. This adaptable 22-foot craft lets you fish at dawn, enjoy wakeboarding throughout the day, and cruise beneath the stars. As a fishing powerhouse, the R227 boasts secure rod storage, a raw water washdown, a self-draining cockpit, and a 20-gallon livewell. The bow area seamlessly transitions from a casting platform to wraparound seating, offering versatility for various activities. Within the cockpit, you'll discover a spacious enclosed head and a deep in-floor ski locker with lockable rod storage, providing ample room for all your equipment.

Robalo's meticulous attention to detail shines through in the stainless steel hardware, featuring flush pull latches and electro-plated thru-hull fittings. Essential options elevate the experience, including a must-have Bimini Top with windscreen, a ski tow bar, snap-in carpet, and a freshwater shower. The cabin and head are equipped with foam-backed hullside material, a head storage cabinet, incandescent directional lighting, a locking head door, mildew-resistant acoustical liner, and a Porta Pottie head.

The cockpit is crafted for ease and practicality, featuring two 23-gallon fishboxes on deck with overboard drains, six beverage holders, a 20-gallon livewell with LED lighting and a blue gelcoat finish behind the helm seat, and a 30-gallon fish box under the lounge seat with an overboard drain. Additional amenities include a 44 qt. cooler on deck with an overboard drain, a cable-actuated helm seat with a flip-up bolster, a cast bronze sea water strainer system, dual-color LED cockpit courtesy lights, and a cockpit floor storage compartment for skis or kneeboards.

The R227 is constructed with a "Perma-Guard" structural system and is backed by a 10-year limited hull warranty. Its Hydro Lift™ multi-angle hull design, Imedge premium gel coat, and Kevlar-reinforced hull ensure both durability and performance. The boat is NMMA certified and includes a PVC rubrail with a stainless steel insert, a rope and chain locker, and stainless steel bow grab rails with backing plates. The dash and electronics feature a 110V battery charger/maintainer, a 12V DC receptacle on the dash, an aluminum instrument panel with weatherproof switches and circuit breakers, and a premium sound system with a 4-speaker AM/FM CD player, remote control, and display, MP3 plug, and iPod holder.

With its blend of fishing capabilities, leisure features, and sturdy construction, the R227 is an exceptional choice for those in search of a versatile and dependable vessel.
