OVERVIEW

“Current Price” is an indicator only; all serious offers are welcome. The 2008 Sea Ray 205 Sport marries the spirited character of a classic runabout with the meticulous construction and finish that Sea Ray is known for, producing a sporty bowrider that feels both refined and invigorating on the water. Its graceful profile and athletic surfacing conceal a deep V hull tuned to hold a steady line when the chop rises, delivering nimble, precise handling whether you are leisurely cruising a shoreline, towing inflatables, or opening the throttle for a brisk passage. The cockpit layout is thoughtfully executed, offering supportive seating, premium upholstery, and cleverly integrated storage to keep the deck uncluttered and ready for use. With confident acceleration and predictable, linear power delivery, this trailerable powerboat is equally suited to relaxed dayboating and spirited watersports. Overall, this well sorted 21 foot bowrider continues to impress with its reliability, visual appeal, and everyday versatility.

Presenting well for its year, the vessel appears in solid overall condition but will benefit from a professional detail and routine seasonal commissioning to restore show ready presentation. Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the boat in person and submit their best offers.

A trailer is not included with this sale. Transport can be coordinated nationwide, and we offer custom cradling and port delivery services for international shipments; please request a tailored logistics plan and estimate for scheduling and pricing.
