GENERAL OVERVIEW

The 2001 Sea Ray 205 Bowrider marries spirited performance with refined, family-minded comfort. Driven by a reliable MerCruiser 5.0, it offers ample thrust for cruising, towing towables, and relaxed days on the water. The roomy open-bow seating, wraparound cockpit, and thoughtfully arranged helm form a convivial, sporty layout that invites both leisurely lounging and lively runs. Practical refinements—generous storage, an integrated swim platform with ladder, stainless fittings, and Sea Ray's signature attention to fit and finish—reinforce its enduring appeal. With elegant lines, a balanced, sporty ride, and convenient 20-foot proportions, this trailerable bowrider is well suited to buyers seeking classic styling and dependable power in a manageable package. An attractive opportunity to own a respected Sea Ray sport boat.
