OVERVIEW

CURRENT PRICE IS A GUIDE; ALL REASONABLE OFFERS WILL BE CONSIDERED.

The 2001 Wellcraft V 21 Tournament presents itself as a refined cuddy-cabin sportfishing boat that equally favors anglers and family-day cruisers. Powered by a dependable 150 hp Yamaha Saltwater Series outboard, this 21-foot V 21 Tournament rides on a pronounced deep-V hull that tempers chop and delivers a composed, dry passage through varying sea states. Its uncluttered, open deck affords generous room for casting and battling fish or simply reclining during coastal outings, while integrated rod holders and abundant storage compartments reinforce its dual role as a saltwater fishing platform and a comfortable weekend dayboat. Marrying rugged construction, seaworthy performance, and thoughtful layout, the V 21 Tournament continues to appeal to boaters who prize both spirited sportfishing and relaxed family cruising.

This tidy 21-foot cuddy-cabin sportfish is an opportunity not to be overlooked.

The vessel presents well for its year. The engine started promptly during inspection; prospective buyers should anticipate routine seasonal commissioning before use. View the boat in person and submit your offer.

No trailer is included with this sale.

Please review the Motors and Machinery Disclaimer for details regarding engine condition.
