Crafted from the ground up by anglers for anglers and their families, this boat establishes a new benchmark in adaptable and comfortable boating. The 222F comes with numerous rod holders, spacious live wells, tackle storage, and a detachable cooler beneath the leaning post, offering limitless possibilities for water adventures. For those desiring further personalization, optional packages like Scarab Offshore, Premium Sound, or Bow Seating can turn your boat into a cherished possession for life.

The hull and deck of the 222 Fisherman are expertly designed, featuring an anchor locker and storage, stainless steel bow and stern eyes, and generous bow floor storage. Stainless steel bow rails and cleats, along with a fiberglass stringer and foam flotation, guarantee durability and safety. The all-white gel coat, paired with stainless steel grab handles and a horn, adds a touch of sophistication. Boarding is simplified with a practical ladder, and the boat complies with all relevant USCG and Canadian regulations, being NMMA Certified using ABYC standards. Navigation lights, gunnel-mounted rod holders, and a rub rail with a stainless steel insert complete the sturdy design, while stainless steel thru-hull fittings enhance the vessel's robustness.

Within the cockpit, you'll discover stainless steel assist handles, a 23-gallon bait well/live well with bluecoat, and several beverage holders for convenience. The cockpit is thoughtfully designed with bolsters and includes a removable cooler under the leaning post. Courtesy lights and deck lids with stainless steel latches and gas assist improve the user experience. The diamond-patterned non-skid surface ensures safety, while the leaning post and gunnel rod storage
