OVERVIEW

Experience the sophistication of this impeccably cared-for 220 Outrage, powered by a robust 250HP engine with minimal usage. Setting itself apart from others in its category, which often feature 225HP engines, this yacht offers superior performance. The vessel is in pristine condition, highlighted by newly installed upholstery that exudes luxury.

Outfitted with a T-Top, it is designed with slots for outriggers, ideal for fishing enthusiasts. The entertainment system on board features a state-of-the-art Fusion head unit and premium JL Audio speakers, providing an exceptional sound experience. Additional amenities include Lenco trim tabs for effortless maneuvering, a helm-controlled spotlight for improved visibility, and a windlass system also managed from the helm for added ease.

Navigating is seamless with the Garmin 541S multifunction display, supported by two SmartCraft Merc gauges and a Merc binnacle control for accurate handling.

This yacht is currently on the market in a prime location, with offers and trades welcomed. If you're in search of a yacht that marries performance with luxury, this is an opportunity you won't want to overlook. Delve into yacht sales at the current boat location and enhance your maritime adventures today!

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Section name

This remarkable 220 Outrage is a vessel that truly stands out, featuring a low-hour 250HP engine, offering more power than the typical 225HP engines found in similar boats. The yacht is in superb condition, showcasing the meticulous care it has received. It boasts brand-new upholstery, enhancing both its comfort and visual appeal. The T-Top is cleverly designed with slots for outriggers, perfect for those who enjoy fishing excursions.

The onboard entertainment system is exceptional, with a modern Fusion head unit driving the stereo, paired with premium JL Audio speakers for an immersive sound experience. Navigational and operational simplicity is achieved with Lenco trim tabs and a spotlight, both easily controlled from the helm. The helm-controlled windlass further adds to the ease of use, making anchoring straightforward.

For navigation, the boat is outfitted with a Garmin 541S multifunction display, putting all essential information at your fingertips. The helm is further equipped with two SmartCraft Merc gauges and a Merc binnacle control, ensuring precise and dependable engine management.

This vessel is not only a pleasure to operate but also offers flexibility in ownership, as offers and trades are welcomed. Whether you're seeking an upgrade or a new adventure on the water, this 220 Outrage is poised to fulfill your desires with elegance and performance.

Manufacturer provided description

Measuring 22 feet 5 inches, the 220 Outrage is a versatile craft that perfectly balances size with performance. It's compact enough for easy trailering, yet sturdy and fast enough to confidently navigate larger waters. The boat features a completely new running surface, enhancing its capabilities and ensuring a smooth, dry ride even in tough conditions. With Mercury outboard options ranging from the standard 225-horsepower engine to the formidable 300-horsepower Verado, this vessel offers remarkable versatility and power to meet the needs of any boating enthusiast.

Living up to the Outrage reputation, the 220 comes fully equipped from the start, providing ample space and comfort. The interior features a generous twenty-six inches of freeboard, ensuring safety and stability, while accommodating up to ten passengers, making it perfect for group excursions on open waters. The extensive array of options and accessories allows owners to customize the 220 Outrage to their precise specifications, ensuring each voyage is tailored to their desires and needs. Whether you're in search of adventure or relaxation, this boat is crafted to provide an unmatched experience on the water.
