OVERVIEW

Indulge in the sophistication of the 2007 Cobalt 222, a breathtaking yacht featuring a timeless white and black exterior accented by an elegant tan stripe. This vessel, available for purchase, is powered by a robust Mercruiser V8 engine coupled with a Bravo dual prop outdrive, promising a thrilling experience on the water. It comes equipped with a Bimini top, bow cover, and cockpit cover, alongside dual batteries and chargers to ensure seamless adventures. The depth sounder and AM/FM/CD stereo system with four speakers elevate your aquatic enjoyment, while docking lights and snap-in/out carpets enhance both functionality and comfort.

This opulent yacht boasts a swim platform with a fold-down ladder, a wakeboard tower complete with a rack, and fore and aft lounge cushion inserts for ultimate relaxation. The sale includes a flag pole, skis, a wakeboard, a wake surfer, ski ropes, life vests, original documentation, a handheld VHF radio, an extra anchor, mooring lines, and fenders with fabric covers.

Accompanying the yacht is a 2007 Prestige tandem trailer, featuring surge disc brakes, a spare tire with a carrier, and new tires, facilitating easy transportation of your new acquisition.

Having had only two owners, this vessel has been meticulously cared for. It has recently undergone an engine and lower unit oil change and has been detailed to perfection. The owner reports no known issues, and Cobalt is celebrated for its exceptional craftsmanship and quality in this class of boats.

Currently situated at Edgar Evins Marina on Center Hill Lake, this yacht is stored in a covered slip with a lift. The new owner will have the first option to the slip and lift, presenting an extraordinary opportunity for those seeking to purchase a yacht at its current location. Seize this chance to own this remarkable yacht!

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Section name

The yacht boasts an extensive suite of electronics, ensuring both practicality and entertainment while at sea. It is equipped with a depth sounder for accurate underwater measurements and a VHF radio for dependable communication. Music lovers will appreciate the CD player with AM/FM functionality, enhanced by cockpit speakers that fill the vessel with sound. Inside, the yacht is equipped with a battery charger, ensuring all electronic devices stay powered throughout your voyage. This feature is crucial for maintaining the yacht's operational efficiency and providing a seamless experience on the water.

Externally, the yacht offers additional amenities for comfort and convenience. Cushions in the cockpit create a cozy seating area, while a swimming ladder provides easy access to the water, enhancing the overall leisure experience. To protect against the elements, the yacht includes a Bimini top and a cockpit cover. These covers are crafted to shield passengers from sun and rain, ensuring a pleasant and enjoyable outing in any weather.

The manufacturer describes the yacht's versatility and performance, emphasizing its ability to meet diverse demands. The Cobalt 222 is engineered to deliver the perfect wake for water sports enthusiasts while maintaining fuel efficiency that complements its powerful engine. It comfortably hosts a dozen friends, offering a stable and smooth ride with precise control at the helm. Whether catering to the adventurous nature of athletes or providing a tranquil cruise for family outings, the Cobalt 222 embodies a comprehensive capability that suggests anything is possible on the water.
