OVERVIEW

Brand new, supplied with a full factory warranty to the first owner and still sealed in its original Williams factory packaging, this EvoJet 70 arrives ready for immediate delivery. It features a folding roof and a bimini top and is fitted with a suite of premium upgrades throughout.

Offered at €270,000.00 + VAT if applicable and lying in Palma de Mallorca, Spain, the sale includes the seller covering TT rebranding. Step aboard and the aura of a superyacht moves with you onto the water: generous deck areas, a broad, confidence-inspiring hull designed for ultra-smooth passages, and a punchy Yanmar powertrain that pairs exhilarating performance with serene comfort — a harmonious blend of refinement and speed.

Yacht category keywords: superyacht tender, luxury jet tender, yacht tender, chase boat, motor yacht tender, day tender.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Options

Brand new EvoJet 70 offered with full warranties for the new owner, presented at a price of €270,000.00 plus VAT if any, and currently located in Palma de Mallorca, Spain, arrives with a folding roof and bimini cover and is loaded with extras while remaining in its original Williams packaging; the seller will cover T/T rebranding costs. With the EvoJet 70 the superyacht experience does not stop when you step aboard your tender: vast swathes of space, a wide hull that assures the smoothest rides and a powerful Yanmar engine combine to deliver an intoxicating union of luxury and performance. The P85 colour option is specified with deck P85 Standard White finished in flow coat with a matching stringer and helm P85 Standard White likewise in flow coat with a stringer to match deck RAL, while the hull features P85 custom lift points in STD White. The tube is a P85 special order custom tube detailed as body Neptune Grey, top flash Arctic Grey, RS/EC/Logo Black, bow cleat Black, valve caps Grey and handles Grey. Upholstery P85 is configured with body Silververtex Ice and logo Black, complemented by a special logo on the tube — 565DJ, 625DJ and EvoJet T/T Q in Black — and a special embroidered Q on the upholstery. The package adds EvoJet full automatic inflation, flooring 700EJ grey teak decking with white caulking, custom lift points and an EvoJet single point lift, together with a Dieseljet/large Sportjet towing kit. The Top receives a spray applied black gloss finish, while a central coolbox, a full deck light kit, underwater lights and an auxiliary battery enhance comfort and utility. Navigation and communications are comprehensively covered by a Garmin GPSMAP 923XSV chartplotter, a Garmin GT15M IH XDR eight pin MID CHIRP in hull transducer, Garmin VHF 315i and Garmin AIS 800, and entertainment is provided via the EvoJet standard music package. Weather protection and crew comfort are addressed by EvoJet bimini canopies front and rear, an EvoJet day cover for the helm and front seat, an EvoJet spray dodger Mist and a spray dodger fitting kit, while ground tackle and logistics are attended to with a D type stainless steel anchor five kilogram Q133818 and a packaging charge of 625DJ Export.
