OVERVIEW

All serious offers are welcomed and will be considered with respect.

The 2005 Sea Pro 238 Center Console is a refined and capable 23-foot sportboat that blends robust construction with a design honed for anglers, equally suited to offshore runs, working coastal structure, or leisurely intracoastal passages. Sea Pro's well-regarded hull geometry provides a dry, composed ride that inspires confidence when conditions deteriorate. Built with fishing in mind, this 238 CC offers generous casting decks, secure under-gunwale rod storage, and a class-leading centerline transom hatch that grants easy access to batteries and the bilge, while large scuppers ensure rapid cockpit drainage. Agile and seaworthy, this saltwater-ready center console balances maneuverability and practicality with pure boating pleasure, making it an attractive choice for recreational boaters and serious anglers alike.

Reported to present well for its age, this Sea Pro is offered with a road-ready trailer and remains ready to fish and enjoy as-is; light cosmetic attention could further enhance her appearance. Prospective buyers are invited to view the vessel and submit offers.

A Load Rite double-axle roller trailer is included with the sale, reinforcing the boat's trailerable convenience and broad cruising potential. Nationwide transport can be arranged through trusted carriers, including the option for custom cradles and delivery to ports for overseas shipment. Logistics coordination and formal quotations are available upon request, and comprehensive shipping solutions including export preparation can be provided to simplify the transition from driveway to dock.
