OVERVIEW

Current price should be regarded as a guideline, and all reasonable offers are welcomed and considered with respect. The 2008 Sea Ray 240 Sundeck pairs lively performance with family-oriented refinement in the signature Sea Ray manner. Measuring just under 26 feet LOA, this upscale bowrider/deck boat presents a generous open-bow runabout layout appointed with sumptuous seating, a carefully arranged cockpit, a private head compartment, a convenient wet bar and plentiful storage—features that together make it an ideal day cruiser for coastal excursions, sandbar gatherings or towing water toys. Driven by MerCruiser propulsion, the boat delivers responsive acceleration and confident handling, while the deep V hull promotes stability and comfort as conditions build.

Well maintained and stylish, this 240 Sundeck remains a desirable choice within the Sea Ray range for buyers seeking roomy accommodations, comfortable onboard living and dependable sport boat performance in a refined package. A full professional detail and routine seasonal commissioning are recommended before the next launch, so we invite you to step aboard, inspect her thoroughly and submit your offer with assurance. A trailer is not included; nationwide transport can be coordinated through a certified marine transporter with quotes available, and custom cradles or delivery to port for international shipment can be arranged upon request. Please review the Motors and Machinery disclaimer.

No representation is made regarding the condition of motors, engines or onboard systems. While photographs of the engine compartment or machinery can be supplied, it is solely the buyer's responsibility to inspect and verify actual condition. Do not assume accessories or equipment are included unless they are present during your inspection; the vessel is offered strictly as viewed. Submit offers based on the inventory at the time of your inspection.

The information provided is offered in good faith but without guarantee or warranty as to accuracy or condition; prospective buyers are urged to confirm all particulars independently.
