OVERVIEW

SYNTHESIS is a rigorously specified pedigree superyacht that marries Amels' celebrated Dutch shipbuilding with Tim Heywood's arresting exterior silhouette and an interior by Winch Design inspired by tranquil beach houses, resulting in a distinctly modern luxury motor yacht.

Commissioned with close input from a seasoned Owner and overseen by an expert build supervision team, she benefits from a number of considered refinements beyond earlier Amels 242 sisterships. That meticulous attention to detail was recognised when she won Best Motor Yacht Interior for 500GT+ at the 2022 Boat International Design & Innovation Awards, a testament to her status among blue chip luxury yachts.

Light pours through the interiors, which revolve around a private Owner's deck where the forward facing master stateroom opens directly onto an outdoor lounge and private jacuzzi. Complemented by his and hers bathrooms, a dedicated office and an elegant salon arranged for privacy and comfort, the suite reads as a secluded, residential retreat at sea.

Guest accommodation is exemplary: two identical VIP suites occupy the forward main deck, while the lower deck provides three further guest cabins and a comprehensive spa area featuring a massage room, sauna, hammam, plunge pool and juice bar, all configured for effortless, direct access to the water — a fully realised superyacht wellness programme.

A signature feature is the aft deck pool, sized 6.7m x 3.35m and ringed by ample sunning and lounging space, which visually and functionally melds into a generous main salon appointed with a bar and dedicated TV zones to create a superior inside outside living and entertaining environment.

A variety of exterior living areas enhance life on board, from the sun deck with jacuzzi and flexible seating to an entertainment terrace aft on the bridge deck, where a bar and extensive seating convert into an open air cinema — an ideal expression of contemporary mega yacht lifestyle.

SYNTHESIS carries a comprehensive complement of water toys and two Limo/Beachlander tenders of 9.1m and 8.6m housed in a large garage, together with a touch and go helipad and an elevator serving from the lower deck to the bridge deck to improve guest movement and convenience.

Offered for sale for the first time and presented turnkey, SYNTHESIS returned from a substantial six month Amels yard period completed in April 2026 that included a full repaint and the 5 Year Lloyd's Class Survey. Rare in today's market for her pedigree, size and youth, she represents an exceptional opportunity for discerning superyacht buyers.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

SYNTHESIS summary

SYNTHESIS is a meticulously specified pedigree yacht that marries Amels' renowned Dutch build quality with an exterior penned by Tim Heywood and an inviting, beach house-inspired interior from Winch Design. Realised with close collaboration from her experienced Owner and a highly capable build-supervision team, she incorporates a host of refinements and upgrades beyond previous Amels 242s, a level of detail acknowledged when she received the Best Motor Yacht Interior (500GT-plus) at the 2022 Boat International Design & Innovation Awards.

Her luminous, light-filled interior is organised around a private Owner's deck, where a forward-facing master stateroom opens directly onto an exclusive outdoor seating area and jacuzzi and is complemented by his-and-hers bathrooms, a dedicated office and an intimate salon. Forward on the main deck two equal-size VIP cabins provide peerless comfort for distinguished guests, while the lower deck houses three further guest cabins alongside a dedicated spa complex that includes a massage room, sauna, hammam, dip pool and a juice bar with direct access to the sea.

A defining element of SYNTHESIS is the substantial aft-deck pool framed by generous lounging areas, which, together with the expansive main salon—complete with bar and TV-viewing zones—creates an effortless inside-outside connection for entertaining and relaxation. Additional exterior living spaces include a sun deck with jacuzzi and abundant seating and lounging options, while the bridge deck aft, adjacent to the formal dining room, serves as an elegant venue for pre-dinner drinks that can be transformed into a large outdoor cinema.

Offered for sale for the first time in turnkey condition, SYNTHESIS has recently undergone a comprehensive €9 million refit at Amels in 2026, which encompassed a full repaint and a five-year Lloyd's Class Survey, ensuring she is presented to the market in superb mechanical and aesthetic order.
