OVERVIEW

"Current price" is offered for guidance only; all reasonable offers will be received with discretion and respect. Presented here is a refreshed description of the 2004 Sea Ray Sundancer 280, an admired express cruiser in the sport and cabin cruiser arena that marries elegant styling with comfortable accommodations and dependable performance. The interior is thoughtfully arranged for weekend entertaining and overnight stays, featuring a luminous cabin where a convertible V berth seamlessly converts into a dinette for meals or conversation, complemented by a snug mid cabin double that provides extra sleeping capacity. The compact galley is equipped to support short getaways with a single burner stove, microwave and refrigerator, while the well appointed head includes a Vacuflush toilet, a shower and a tidy vanity with sink to keep onboard living uncomplicated. The cockpit is designed for socializing and relaxation, with a wet bar and sink, an insulated cooler to preserve provisions, ample lounge seating including a foldaway aft bench and a companion lounge with a supportive forward facing backrest for comfortable passages. An extended swim platform with a hidden ladder invites spontaneous swims and watersports, underscoring the Sundancer's versatility as a luxury motor yacht in a compact, sport cruiser package. Underway, propulsion is provided by twin MerCruiser 4.3L MPI engines producing a combined 440 horsepower, delivering smooth, responsive acceleration and an economical cruise that owners in this class consistently commend. Fuel and tankage support leisurely days and short overnights with a 100 gallon fuel capacity, a 28 gallon freshwater tank and a 28 gallon holding tank, while the hull's balance offers predictable handling and straightforward docking with the interior volume expected of this model. Regarding condition, the starboard engine has been newly installed and shows only minimal test hours; both engines fire readily and run exceptionally well. The boat has been kept very clean with monthly, thorough detailing that reflects attentive ownership. This Sundancer 280 is being offered for bid as the owner is retiring from boating and is available for inspection in Hilton Head Island; a trailer is not included in the sale. For buyers desiring turnkey delivery, nationwide transport can be coordinated through trusted marine logistics partners, including custom cradles for secure over the road or export preparation and shipment to domestic or international ports; regional offices in Mendon, MA and St. George, SC can provide assistance with quotes, scheduling and logistics to ensure a smooth transfer from dock to destination. Prospective purchasers are encouraged to examine the engines and onboard systems in person or to engage a qualified surveyor; while photographs of the machinery space may be supplied, no representations are made here concerning the precise condition of engines or auxiliary equipment and it remains the buyer's responsibility to verify condition. Please do not assume any accessories or loose gear are included unless present at the time of inspection; the vessel is offered strictly as seen and offers should reflect the equipment observed. The particulars provided are believed to be accurate and are offered in good faith for general guidance, but they are not guaranteed and should not be relied upon as definitive statements of condition; buyers should independently confirm any specifications or features of importance. This vessel is offered subject to prior sale, price change, or withdrawal without notice. All marine assets, whether owned or brokered by our affiliated entities, are sold AS IS, WHERE IS, with NO WARRANTY OR GUARANTEE, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, including NO WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. No verbal agreements will alter the terms of sale. With Sea Ray's respected pedigree, a flexible express cruiser layout and the assurance of twin engine power, this 2004 Sundancer 280 represents a refined, ready to enjoy option for buyers seeking a luxurious and eminently usable weekend cruiser that can elevate time on the water from the very first departure.
