OVERVIEW

Salty Knots is a 2019 Boston Whaler 280 Outrage, a 28-foot embodiment of capability and confidence, featuring the brand's hallmark foam-filled construction and a 23-degree deep-V hull redesigned with an aft planing pad for rapid lift and smooth running. Power comes from twin Mercury Verado 350 HP L6 supercharged outboards showing only 270 hours, backed by warranty through July 2027. Mercury Joystick Piloting, Digital Throttle & Shift, hydraulic power steering, and recessed electric trim tabs with position indicators provide precise, effortless control.

At the helm, dual flush-mounted Raymarine Axiom Pro displays integrate seamlessly with Mercury digital engine instrumentation and joystick control. Recent upgrades include new upholstery throughout and new batteries, elevating both comfort and readiness.

Anglers will appreciate 20 rod holders positioned throughout, a 30-gallon pressurized live well with clear lid and blue interior, in-floor fish boxes, lockable rod storage beneath the bow seating, and a spacious cockpit with gasketed, finished storage hatches and gas-assisted supports.

Comfort is equally prioritized: a generous forward bow seating area with a sundeck lounge and armrests, large storage compartments, fold-down transom seating, and a comfortable leaning post. The enclosed head within the console, freshwater system, additional in-floor storage, and a 28-inch interior freeboard complete a thoughtful layout that balances offshore capability with family-friendly amenities.
