OVERVIEW

This 32-foot Scout luxury center console is presented turnkey and sea-ready, meticulously maintained and ready for immediate cruising. The engines show approximately 650 hours and have benefited from conscientious, regular care. Mechanically and cosmetically, both inside and out, the vessel is in very good condition, a true reflection of attentive ownership. On the water she delivers a smooth, composed ride with excellent, confidence-inspiring handling in a variety of conditions, whether running nearshore or heading offshore. The generous deck layout offers plenty of space for entertaining, relaxing, and enjoying full days afloat with family and friends. For those seeking a versatile, reliable, and well-kept center console that performs as well as it presents, this Scout stands out as an exceptional choice.
