OVERVIEW

Current price is a guide and all respectful offers are invited. The 1997 Bayliner 3255 Express embodies an inviting entry into the express cruiser world, marrying a sporty, streamlined silhouette with an interior that prizes volume and comfort. At 32 feet overall with an 11-foot beam, the layout yields surprisingly generous living space; headroom is well over six feet, and a clever mid-cabin arrangement transforms the interior into a genuine cabin cruiser and weekender capable of comfortably sleeping six guests for leisurely escapes. Bright, airy, and thoughtfully arranged, the cabin lives larger than its dimensions suggest.

A bi-level cockpit spills naturally aft to the integrated swim platform, blending helm, lounging areas, and water access into one convivial gathering place that's ideal for entertaining family and friends. The social helm and expansive cockpit flow together to create a welcoming arena for days on the water, while the boat's approachable handling and confidence-inspiring manners have long made the 3255 a favorite on the pre-owned market. For those seeking the most boat for the investment, this 32-foot sport cruiser offers a versatile, easygoing motor yacht spirit that suits coastal cruising and family outings alike. This example has sat idle for several months and will benefit from a thorough detailing and routine seasonal commissioning; previously used in freshwater, she presents a sound platform for a new owner to refresh, customize, and enjoy. Prospective buyers are encouraged to come aboard, imagine the upgrades, and present their offers.

A trailer is not included with this sale. Nationwide transportation can be arranged, including custom cradles and shipment to port for international buyers, allowing a smooth transition from dock to destination for coastal cruiser adventures.

No representations are made regarding the engines or onboard machinery; buyers are solely responsible for inspecting and determining their condition. Photographs may depict the engine space or related systems, but such images are supplied for general reference only. Do not assume that any accessories or loose equipment pictured or previously present are included or in storage; the vessel is offered strictly as seen, and any bid or offer should reflect the inventory present at the time of viewing.

For those in search of a refined yet approachable express cruiser that harmonizes space, style, and sociable design, the Bayliner 3255 remains a compelling cabin cruiser and family-friendly powerboat. Seize this opportunity to step into a proven sport cruiser platform and begin your next chapter on the water with confidence and flair.
