OVERVIEW

Listed price is provided for guidance only, and all serious offers will be met with courtesy. This 2008 Sea Ray 310 Sundancer stands out as an express cruiser and true pocket yacht, its sleek profile riding on a Deep V running surface that hints at spirited handling and seaworthy performance. Though compact in length, her interior is remarkably generous, the layout and finish creating a sense of space beyond what her dimensions suggest.

At the heart of this sport cruiser is a convivial cockpit where a flowing wet bar and a wraparound lounge form an inviting social center for sunset gatherings and effortless dayboat entertaining. Below decks, high gloss cherry joinery and a true mid cabin lounge compose a refined retreat that helped this cabin cruiser become a benchmark in its era. The arrangement is ideal for owners who seek responsive coastal cruising without surrendering the comforts of a weekend getaway on the water.

This mid cabin weekender has been stored on a rack for several months and will benefit from a thorough cleaning and routine seasonal commissioning. She was recently operated under her own power to a viewing slip, making inspection straightforward and encouraging for buyers prepared to step aboard a capable coastal cruiser. A trailer is not included with the sale, though nationwide transport and international shipping to port, including custom cradles, can be arranged to simplify delivery wherever you choose to cruise.

Please refer to the machinery disclaimer regarding engines and onboard systems. No representation is made about the condition of motors or equipment, and buyers are solely responsible for inspection and evaluation. Do not assume any accessories or loose gear are included unless they are present at viewing; this motor yacht is offered strictly as seen.
