OVERVIEW

34' Mainship 2003 Pilot

Blending Downeast aesthetics with practical cruising sensibilities, this 2003 Mainship 34 Pilot presents the classic New England lobster-boat profile atop a semi-displacement hull with a deep keel for reassuring stability. Power is provided by a single Yanmar diesel, renowned for reliable, efficient performance. Timeless lines, an easy-to-live-with layout, and surefooted handling make it a favored coastal cruiser.

Condition appears good overall, with recent engine service reported. An electrical short has been noted and will need attention. A trailer is not included.

Nationwide transport, custom cradles, and shipment to port for overseas delivery are available. Please review the Motors and Machinery Disclaimer; buyers are responsible for inspecting machinery and confirming equipment on site. Offered as-is, where-is, subject to prior sale, price change, or withdrawal without notice. All offers respectfully considered.
