OVERVIEW

READY TO TURN YOUR DREAM VOYAGES INTO REALITY? KATIE B IS READY TO TAKE YOU THERE.

Your voyage begins today.

The Bahamas, the Great Loop, and relaxed coastal cruising are all within reach.

This polished tug-style yacht is fully outfitted and prepared to depart.

Beautifully maintained inside and out.

380 hp Cummins common-rail diesel (approx. 3,850 hrs) providing reliable, economical power

5 kW Northern Lights genset in a sound enclosure (approx. 1,896 hrs)

Extensive spare parts for both main engine and generator

Refined wood-look laminate throughout; heated salon sole for added comfort in cool weather

Bow thruster for smooth, accurate maneuvering

Reverso fuel polishing system to keep fuel clean and dependable

Reverso oil-change system for straightforward serviceability

Parker LMT 500 watermaker, approx. 20 GPH, enabling extended self-sufficiency

New AGM house battery bank (08/2025)

Two 16,000 BTU reverse-cycle A/C units with heat (2022)

Upgraded two-compressor refrigerator/freezer (2022)

Spare NIBRAL three-blade propeller

Three solar panels totaling approx. 750 W for quiet, off-grid energy

275' of new BBB chain with three anchors for secure holding options

Tomco electric dinghy davits for easy launching and retrieval

10' Highfield aluminum RIB with 15 hp Yamaha outboard

A genuine pilothouse fast trawler and tug yacht, KATIE B combines steady performance with the comforts of a compact motor yacht. The Island Queen master berth, roomy head with separate shower, and wide visibility from both pilothouse and salon create an inviting liveaboard or passagemaker environment. The generous cockpit is ideal for relaxing, alfresco meals, or fishing—comfortable at a secluded anchorage or alongside a busy marina. From circumnavigating the Great Loop to island-hopping in the Exumas, this cruising yacht has the range, systems, and seakeeping to make each passage effortless. A distinctive tug-style cruiser and true pocket trawler for a couple who value luxury, capability, and refined simplicity—ready to untie and head out.
