OVERVIEW

Sleek and contemporary, this 2023 motor yacht radiates the understated confidence of modern American yachting. At 35 feet overall with a broad 10-foot beam, her proportions meld athletic silhouette with generous onboard volume. A modified V-hull fashioned from resilient fiberglass and advanced composite materials yields a composed, dry ride, while triple Mercury outboards deliver immediate throttle response and effortless cruising manners. With 385 gallons of fuel aboard, she readily extends the range between ports, positioning herself among the most desirable performance-orientated motor yachts on the market.

Life on deck prioritizes sociability and ease, the fiberglass deck flowing seamlessly into an expansive cockpit appointed with plush seating and cleverly integrated storage to create an elegant stage for sunlit afternoons or evening gatherings at anchor. The forward helm is pared-back and contemporary, with intuitive controls that make piloting as satisfying as the destinations you choose. Below, a serene cabin envelops guests in warm materials and refined finishes, offering a convertible berth and a bright, fully enclosed head for comfortable weekend cruising. A freshwater system supported by a 45-gallon tank underscores the yacht's practical comforts, while meticulous build quality throughout conveys a solid, sophisticated construction.

For those seeking a refined, late-model motor yacht built in the United States, this 2023 example strikes a rare balance of style, substance, and day-to-day usability. Whether you're sprinting to a favorite waterfront bistro, embarking on a coastal getaway, or simply luxuriating in a perfect day on the water, she responds with poise, power, and the thoughtful details that elevate every outing into time well spent.
