OVERVIEW

Step aboard a vision of refined seamanship: a 2024 model yacht for sale in Greece that marries sculpted aesthetics with purposeful engineering. Measuring a length overall of 36 feet with a beam of 10 feet, this vessel presents a harmonious proportion that delivers both spirited performance and gracious comfort, inviting owners to glide from sheltered bays to open sea with equal confidence.

The hull, fashioned from high-quality fiberglass and plastic, is as resilient as it is handsome, cutting through Mediterranean swells with a composed, efficient gait. Propulsion is provided by twin Mercury outboard engines, whose dependable power and responsiveness transform coastal exploration into a smooth, exhilarating passage, whether tracing island shorelines or pressing toward distant horizons.

The deck unfolds as an emblem of convivial leisure, its materials chosen for beauty and functionality to complement the yacht's elegant silhouette. Configured to maximize usable space, the layout affords generous seating and sunbathing areas where the warmth of the Greek sun is best savored, while sightlines remain open to sea and sky, perfect for both lively gatherings and quiet repose.

Within, the interior speaks of contemporary luxury rendered with restraint. Although specific interior details are not listed, the atmosphere promises a tasteful blend of comfort and style, envisioned to include plush furnishings and refined finishes that offer a welcoming retreat after a day at sea. The cabin sets the scene for intimate moments and shared memories with family and friends.

More than a boat, this craft is an invitation to a lifestyle of maritime discovery and elegance, presently located in Greece and offered for sale to those who seek a rare combination of form, function, and freedom. Whether purchased for private enjoyment or as a discerning investment, this 36-foot 2024 model stands ready to deliver unforgettable voyages along some of the world's most breathtaking coasts. Contact for further details and to arrange a viewing of this exceptional yacht.
