This yacht harmonizes graceful lines with generous proportions, marrying advanced systems and a commercial-grade build to deliver a vessel that is as dependable as it is beautiful—a lifestyle choice for those who prize both aesthetic distinction and uncompromising performance on the water.

The exterior silhouette is unmistakably modern, its sleek profile and commanding stance betrayed only by the gleam of the hull as it mirrors sea and sky. Every curve and contour is conceived to attract the eye while serving the sea; the Sundeck 400's confident presence announces itself in any marina or anchorage.

Step aboard to an expansive sundeck where space has been thoughtfully composed for conviviality and repose. A broad seating area welcomes guests into an open-air salon, ideal for sunlit leisure or evening conversation, while an integrated wet bar places refreshments effortlessly within reach. The lounge flows with the day's rhythm, converting from a lively social stage to a tranquil evening retreat without losing an ounce of comfort.

Materials and finish are chosen with enduring service in mind: resilient marine upholstery cushions every seat, complementary teak decking lends warm sophistication underfoot, and polished stainless steel accents punctuate the design with a precise, long-lasting sheen. Ample storage keeps belongings stowed neatly, and en-suite facilities in the cabins ensure privacy and convenience. The careful layout and considered detailing ensure restful nights after days spent exploring open water.

At the helm, a premium dashboard houses advanced navigation technology and intuitive controls.
