DETAILED DESCRIPTION

---

Section name

---

This yacht represents the pinnacle of engineering and design, featuring an array of elements that make it an exceptional choice for any discerning owner. At its core are the Cummins QSB 6.7 engines, with one recently replaced and covered by a transferable warranty, while the other has just undergone a 1,000-hour service at 350 hours. The yacht's exterior captivates with its dark blue metallic hull that shines brilliantly in the sun. Effortless maneuverability is achieved through the Xenta joystick paired with a thruster, ensuring smooth and precise control.

The teak cockpit, refreshed in 2022, exudes elegance and resilience, while the Raymarine A-series electronics offer cutting-edge navigation and management. For water enthusiasts, the hydraulic swim platform provides seamless access to the ocean. Entertainment is enhanced with an upgraded Fusion audio system, delivering impeccable sound throughout the yacht. The vessel is adorned with full LED lighting, creating a cozy and welcoming ambiance.

Gourmet lovers will delight in the aft cockpit grill and sink, ideal for outdoor dining, and the flybridge refrigerator keeps beverages readily available. The yacht has been recently treated with a ceramic coating, offering a protective and lustrous finish, and benefits from heated indoor storage during winter, maintaining its immaculate condition all year. This yacht is more than just a vessel; it is a statement of lifestyle, offering luxury, performance, and comfort in perfect harmony.

Electronics

The yacht boasts an extensive array of electronics crafted to elevate both navigation and onboard entertainment. Central to its navigational prowess are the depthsounder and plotter, delivering accurate underwater data and chart plotting for secure and efficient voyages. The autopilot system reduces the strain of long trips by offering precise automated steering. A dependable compass and GPS system further refine navigational precision, while the VHF radio guarantees clear communication with other boats and maritime stations. For those needing heightened situational awareness, the radar system excels in detecting nearby objects and weather patterns. Entertainment is well catered for, with a TV set and radio offering leisure activities for guests. The yacht's cockpit is equipped with premium speakers, ensuring music and audio are enjoyed throughout the vessel. This combination of sophisticated electronics guarantees that every journey is both secure and pleasurable, making this yacht an ideal choice for those who appreciate both technology and luxury.

Electrical equipment

The yacht features vital electrical systems that deliver uninterrupted and dependable power, whether at sea or docked. The shore power inlet offers an easy link to land-based electricity, facilitating efficient energy management and operation of onboard systems while in port. This is complemented by a powerful generator, ensuring a steady power supply when the yacht is cruising or anchored in secluded areas. Together, the shore power and generator meet all electrical demands, ensuring comfort and convenience for everyone on board, no matter the length or destination of the voyage.

Outside equipment/extras

The yacht's exterior is meticulously crafted with an array of premium equipment and extras that elevate both its functionality and visual appeal. The teak cockpit and sidedecks add a layer of sophistication and resilience, creating a welcoming and cozy environment for guests. A hydraulic gangway facilitates easy boarding, while the hydraulic swim platform, equipped with chocks, provides seamless access to the water for swimming or launching watercraft. The cockpit features an elegant table, ideal for alfresco dining or social gatherings, and a swimming ladder ensures effortless access to and from the sea. Together, these elements create an outstanding outdoor experience, ensuring every moment on board is both delightful and luxurious.

Inside equipment

The yacht's interior is outfitted with an array of advanced equipment aimed at maximizing comfort and convenience on board. A bow thruster allows for precise handling, making docking and navigating confined areas a breeze. The yacht is equipped with both electric and manual bilge pumps, ensuring effective water management and safety in various conditions. A battery charger ensures the electrical systems operate seamlessly, while the air conditioning and heating systems maintain a comfortable environment regardless of the weather.

For additional convenience, the yacht includes a hot water system, enhancing the experience of showers and cleaning tasks. The galley is thoughtfully equipped with a microwave oven and a refrigerator, facilitating easy meal preparation and storage of supplies. The marine head provides a practical and comfortable sanitation solution, ensuring all aspects of onboard life are managed with ease. This extensive collection of interior equipment guarantees that every voyage is as comfortable and enjoyable as possible, creating a home-like ambiance while at sea.
