DETAILED DESCRIPTION

1997 Viking 43 Convertible

This Viking 43 Convertible is distinguished as the most immaculate and competitively priced option available. The current owner, eager to transition to a larger yacht, has ensured this vessel receives exceptional care, with no expense spared. This commitment to upkeep is a major benefit for the future owner. Expertly maintained and recently repainted, this Viking is equipped with numerous upgrades, making it ideal for serious fishing or cruising escapades. The engines, overhauled in 2019, have been consistently serviced, guaranteeing their excellent condition.

The Viking 43C is a renowned, tournament-level sport-fishing yacht crafted by Viking Yachts from 1990 to 2002. As the successor to the Viking 41, the 43C features a longer hull, more robust engine options, hand-crafted interiors, and an enhanced cockpit design. Whether venturing offshore or cruising along the coast, the Viking 43C delivers an ideal mix of performance, comfort, and elegance. Situated in Fajardo, Puerto Rico, this Viking is ready for immediate adventure and attractively priced, presenting a remarkable opportunity for those in search of a premium yacht.
