DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Electronics

---

At the helm, purposeful technology surrounds you: ISP control pairs with VHF communication, an intuitive autopilot and clear, reliable radio to keep every passage confident and connected, while a precision compass steadies your course. Practical comforts are considered too, with a microwave ready when you need it, and navigation comes alive on a dedicated Raymarine GPS Hybriotouch Display for crisp, dependable guidance.

Inside equipment

---

Thoughtfully appointed for comfort and control, the interior features a TV in the main salon and a Sole TV in the master stateroom, while a Nova Kool refrigerator and freezer and a Cuisinart microwave keep provisions perfectly managed. Entertainment flows through a SIRIUS Ready MB QUART radio, and navigation awareness is reinforced with a compass on Carver, engine and transmission control on Carver, ISP CONTROL, and a VHF radio, all complemented by a Volvo display on Carver and the crisp Raymarine GPS Hybriotouch Display.

Electrical equipment

Reliable autonomy is delivered by a generator with 1000 hours, providing steady power for comfort and critical systems alike.

Interior

---

Designed for effortless days and elegant evenings, the bridge invites relaxation beneath a protective hard top, with a sunpad for unhurried lounging, a dedicated entertainment layout, and a convenient wetbar to serve the moment. Forward, a foredeck chaise sun lounge beckons under open skies, while the swim platform eases you into the water and back aboard with grace. Below, two cabins and two heads deliver the privacy and practicality that make extended cruising feel beautifully simple.
