DETAILED DESCRIPTION

On display at the Newport International Boat Show

On display at the Newport International Boat Show, September 11–14, 2025. This is a preliminary listing; complete specifications and further photography will follow. REMEDY is a modern classic: a cutting edge Hunt 44 Raised Pilothouse Express Motoryacht that combines genuine big yacht amenities and current technology within an enduring Downeast aesthetic, deliberately free of passing trends, and distinguished by exceptional seakeeping. The Hunt deep V hull runs level, dry and true, confidently smoothing the seas that Nantucket Sound and Buzzards Bay can present.

Volvo IPS pod drives deliver class leading fuel economy and lively handling at cruise, while joystick docking from two strategically located stations makes tight maneuvers straightforward; in total there are three joystick docking stations. Integrated GPS supports precise position keeping, a valuable aid when slipping into a marina, shadowing kids or grandkids on an Opti/420 racecourse, or waiting for an ICW bridge to open.

Unlike many express boats in this size range, the Hunt 44 forgoes a sunken cockpit. The aft deck lounge is level with the enclosed pilothouse salon, separated by double wide sliding glass doors, creating a vast indoor outdoor entertaining environment. This layout also accommodates a true tender garage: at the touch of a button the hatch opens and the outboard tender glides in and out on custom rollers operated by remote. Below decks a flexible two cabin, two head arrangement and a generous galley open to the salon make refined cruising with family or another couple effortless.

Thoughtful features include a pantry with laundry and wine storage tucked behind the stairs, five power opening windows and a large electric moonroof in the salon, a powered up/down double companion settee with a convertible backrest opposite the helm, refrigeration on the aft deck, a wide swim platform with super yacht steps rising on both sides, and, as noted, three joystick docking stations—all combining to create an unusually comfortable and capable owner operated yacht. As a luxury motor yacht, express cruiser, raised pilothouse Downeast coastal cruiser and sport yacht, REMEDY invites relaxed weekends and confident coastal passages alike.
