OVERVIEW

Just Listed — 2021 Valhalla Boatworks V-46

An exceptional example of Valhalla's flagship center-console lineage, this 2021 V-46 presents a rare opportunity to own a highly sought-after performance center console, appointed with premium upgrades and remarkably low hours. Meticulously conceived from bow to transom, the design marries genuine offshore capability with refined luxury, a testament to Valhalla's rigorous design, engineering, and craftsmanship standards.

Recently repowered with four Mercury Verado V10 400 HP engines — showing only 356 hours and remaining under warranty — this V-46 delivers electrifying acceleration, crisp throttle response, and notable fuel efficiency. The repower enhances both on-water performance and long-term value. A Seakeeper 6 gyro stabilizer provides exceptional motion control, keeping the vessel steady and composed, while a new 2025 generator with just 236 hours ensures reliable shipboard power for extended cruising, fishing, and entertaining.

Celebrated for its outstanding ride, the V-46 combines a sophisticated stepped hull with advanced construction methods to inspire confidence offshore: precise handling, elevated comfort, and dry, predictable behavior whether settling into a conservative cruise or opening the throttles. Those core performance traits define Valhalla's unmistakable DNA.

Striking in any harbor, the boat reflects the brand's signature fit and finish, from its sleek, athletic profile to an ergonomically arranged helm and sumptuous seating that balance utility with elegance. The intelligent deck layout harmonizes serious fishability with upscale amenities, creating a versatile platform equally capable as a sportfisher, luxury dayboat, tournament-ready center console, or express-style weekender.

Perfect for offshore sportfishing, island hopping, or stylish day cruising, this V-46 arrives turnkey with contemporary enhancements, low hours, and top-tier equipment. For buyers seeking a premier center-console yacht that combines authentic sportfishing pedigree with elevated comfort, this offering fulfills every expectation.
