OVERVIEW

Maori T-Top 50 (2011) – comprehensive refit completed in 2025.

This striking open yacht, unmistakably bearing Maori Yachts' signature profile, has been comprehensively renewed and now presents in near-new condition. Twin, factory-new Yanmar engines producing 370 hp each have been fitted, showing only 55 hours of use and mounted on new mounts and plates to ensure poised performance, dependable reliability, and a refined ride underway. The refit delivers a full array of technical and cosmetic upgrades: a new generator with manufacturer warranty through 2027, entirely rewired electrical systems, fresh topsides paint, and reversible air conditioning to guarantee a comfortable onboard climate in every season. Meticulous attention has been paid to every detail so the yacht is offered as a true turn-key luxury motorboat, with no further outlay anticipated. Always wintered indoors and maintained to the highest standards, this T-Top 50 artfully balances style, muscle, and sophistication. With warranties on the engines and generator valid through 2027, it represents a rare opportunity, ideal as a premium dayboat, sport yacht, or chase boat and superyacht tender, certain to enchant aficionados of sleek lines, reliable performance, and the timeless appeal of an open Mediterranean day cruiser.

Maori T-Top 50 (2011) – complete refit in 2025.

This superb open boat, bearing the iconic Maori Yachts aesthetic, has undergone a full renovation this year and now presents in near-new condition, combining clean modern lines with impeccable workmanship. Twin new Yanmar 370 hp engines with only 55 hours, installed with new engine mountings and plates, deliver confident performance, outstanding reliability, and effortlessly smooth cruising, while a new generator, a completely rewired electrical system, a fresh paint finish and reversible air conditioning extend the upgrade across every operational and comfort-related system. Every technical and aesthetic element has been carefully refurbished to offer a yacht that is genuinely ready to sail with no additional costs anticipated, and its consistent winterization in a hangar and meticulous maintenance history reinforce its turnkey appeal. Backed by the manufacturer's warranty on the engines and generator until 2027, this Maori T-Top 50 represents a rare opportunity on the market, equally at home as a high-end day boat or as an elegant, capable chase boat for superyachts, sure to delight enthusiasts who prize clean lines and dependable performance.
