OVERVIEW

Prime Time celebrates Italian craftsmanship and spirited handling, a refined luxury motor yacht carried with quiet poise. A spacious salon opens seamlessly into a modern, well-equipped galley, while a sweeping flybridge and generous aft deck extend the living spaces into the open air. Panoramic glazing frames the horizon, a three-cabin layout provides comfortable private quarters, and a wide sundeck with sunpad plus a sheltered aft dining area make entertaining effortless. Inside, the atmosphere is sleek and luminous, the staterooms are sumptuous and tranquil, and the galley is comprehensively appointed and contemporary—an elegant flybridge yacht that also performs as a lively sport cruiser.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

2012 Azimut 48 Flybridge

Prime Time, a 2012 Azimut 48 Flybridge, is a masterfully styled Italian motoryacht designed for effortless entertaining and confident cruising. Her expansive layout features a welcoming extended flybridge that creates an aft lounge ideal for lingering over open-water vistas, a large aft deck with a covered dining area, and broad side decks with tall handrails for safe, swift passage from bow to stern. The main deck centers on a comfortable four-person divan paired with a high-gloss table and large three-segment rectangular panoramic windows that flood the salon with natural light, complemented by an opening porthole that ushers in fresh sea air. Accommodations include a three-stateroom layout with three twin-berth cabins, a plush U-shaped salon sofa that converts into a double bed beside the dinette, and two heads with separate showers, while the lower deck houses a full-service galley finished with wooden floors. Deck equipment and systems are thoughtfully specified for ease and enjoyment: teak cockpit, hydraulic swim platform with dedicated stowage aft for a jet-ski or tender, starboard side boarding door, generous sunpad on the bow for two, Bose speakers, SAT TV, Raymarine radar and Raymarine depth sounder, Cummins QSC 8.3 600 HP engines, Kohler 15KW diesel generator, Xenta joystick, bow thruster, Fusion stereo, windlass, cockpit shower, electric grill and a bimini top—every element curated to elevate life aboard with sleek, sophisticated ease.
