OVERVIEW

Savor the Refinement of this 2001 Luxury Yacht

Step aboard this elegant 48-foot yacht, a distinguished offering now on the market in the United States. Its graceful fiberglass hull and carefully fashioned deck reveal a vessel conceived as more than transport—an afloat sanctuary designed to deliver memorable moments on open water.

Inside, an inviting atmosphere greets you, where comfort and refinement flow together. The generous arrangement includes two thoughtfully appointed heads, providing privacy and convenience for owners and guests alike. The interior proportions and appointments speak to a standard of quality and taste, making this craft an attractive choice for those seeking a yacht that marries aesthetic appeal with solid design.

Underway, twin Cummins inboard engines provide dependable, powerful propulsion, while the diesel fuel system supplies the efficiency and range needed for extended passages or relaxed day cruises. Whether tracing a coastal route or settling in a tranquil cove, this yacht carries you with poise and assured performance.

Currently moored in a prime location for yacht sales, this exquisite vessel is prepared to enter the market. Its blend of luxury, capability, and sensible design presents an outstanding opportunity for discerning buyers who wish to invest in a yacht that captures the spirit of maritime elegance.

Picture friends and family gathered on the expansive deck, bathing in sunlight or dining beneath a canopy of stars. This yacht transcends mere transportation; it embodies a lifestyle and the promise of enduring memories on the sea.

Seize the chance to own this exceptional 2001 luxury yacht. Explore the possibilities offered by its current boat location and take the first step toward transforming your nautical aspirations into reality. Embrace the freedom of the water and elevate your adventures aboard this refined vessel.
