OVERVIEW

Combining restrained elegance with purposeful design, this 2008 48-foot motor yacht presents a refined cruiser with a classic profile and distinct American lineage, currently located in the United States. Her semi-displacement hull skillfully balances seakeeping and efficiency, delivering a composed, steady passage with responsive handling, while a broad beam enhances stability underway and creates an unexpectedly generous sense of interior volume at rest. Built of durable fiberglass with matching fiberglass decks, she speaks to the strength and quiet assurance of a premium construction, ideal for effortless days at anchor and refined evenings on board. Twin Cummins inboard diesels provide smooth, reliable propulsion, offering the diesel torque and maneuverability owners expect from a genuine motor yacht. Extended cruising is supported by a 400-gallon fuel capacity, complemented by a 110-gallon water capacity to ensure comfortable life aboard. The interior layout is arranged for both relaxation and entertaining, featuring welcoming living areas, ample storage and two heads to afford privacy to owners and guests. Whether configured as an elegant weekender or a capable long-range cruiser, this yacht fuses poise, practicality and pedigree into a singular, luxurious experience on the water.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Boat highlights

Occasions to own a yacht of this stature are uncommon, and T'S LAKE HOUSE presents as a one-owner, all-freshwater 2008 Sea Ray 48 Sundancer dressed in a timeless white hull and propelled by twin Cummins QSC 8.3 540 HO diesel engines with approximately 430 hours. Maneuvering is made easier by a Vetus bow thruster, while cockpit air conditioning, four white underwater lights, and an Onan 11.5kW generator showing approximately 1,295 hours deliver confident performance and refined comfort from the marina to your favorite anchorage.

Crafted for effortless relaxation and elegant entertaining, she features a black bow sun pad with an adjustable backrest and an aft cockpit sunshade with drop curtain, complemented by KVH TracVision M5 satellite TV for onboard enjoyment. The helm is equipped with two Raymarine E120 multifunction displays paired with a Raymarine ST8002 autopilot and a Ray240 VHF radio for precise navigation and reliable communication. Below decks, conveniences such as a Kenyon two-burner cooktop, a Mr. Coffee coffeemaker, and a central vacuum system support seamless day-to-day living, while the well-considered layout provides two staterooms and two heads for private, luxurious accommodations. Every selection onboard is intended to reduce time spent managing the vessel and increase time spent savoring life on the water; schedule your private showing today to discover all that this exceptional Sea Ray 48 Sundancer offers.
