OVERVIEW

Based in France and launched in 2015, this refined 49 ft motor yacht combines classic elegance with confident capability, delivering the kind of effortless cruising expected from top contemporary motor yachts. A generous 14 ft beam creates abundant interior volume and a notably steady ride, while a fiberglass hull and composite decking ensure long lasting strength, low maintenance and a beautifully finished surface underfoot. The profile is sleek and purposeful, with social spaces that flow naturally from cockpit to salon, creating a seamless indoor to outdoor atmosphere perfect for sunlit afternoons and starlit evenings along the Riviera. Twin Volvo inboard engines provide smooth, quiet thrust and precise handling, making harbor maneuvers composed and open water passages relaxed. With a shallow 3.675 ft draft you can slip into secluded coves others cannot reach, and a fuel capacity of approximately 369.84 gallons supports extended weekend escapes without compromise. Inside, the mood is calm and sophisticated: abundant natural light, tasteful finishes and welcoming accommodations form a tranquil retreat after a day on the water. Whether hosting friends for a coastal cruise or setting out on longer Mediterranean itineraries, this 2015 motor yacht embodies poise, comfort and understated luxury along the French coast.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Description

The Fairline Targa 48 embodies classic British sports cruiser pedigree, combining lively performance with refined onboard luxury and the confident seakeeping for which the marque is celebrated. Her generous, sociable cockpit extends beneath an opening hard-top to provide genuine all weather enjoyment, while assured offshore speed and crisp, responsive handling make every passage a delight. The accommodation is equally considerate: a comfortable owner's cabin with an en suite bathroom sets the tone for superb Fairline craftsmanship throughout, making this yacht ideally suited to Mediterranean cruising, family escapes and hosting friends.

Measuring 48 ft / 14.98 m overall with a beam of 4.32 m, she occupies a clear place in the sports cruiser category and can sleep up to six guests in a flexible two- or three-cabin layout depending on the arrangement chosen.

Thoughtfully executed details, from the large bathing platform to the ergonomically honed helm, ensure effortless days afloat and effortless control under way.

Exceptionally well specified, this Targa 48 is fitted with an opening hard-top, air conditioning, a generator and bow thruster, while navigation and systems are supported by a GPS/chartplotter, radar, autopilot and VHF radio. The teak cockpit, forward and aft sunbathing areas and a fully equipped galley elevate life on board, and a large hydraulically actuated bathing platform doubles as a generous swim platform for relaxed anchorage days. In short, she arrives comprehensively equipped—with generator, hydraulic platform, bow thruster and opening hard-top among the key amenities that simplify ownership.

Price: 520 000€ VAT paid.
