OVERVIEW

Amelia Seas is a 2024 Ferretti Yachts 500 Flybridge, a 50-foot LOA embodiment of sleek Italian styling, refined craftsmanship, and practical livability that render this model especially compelling. From a marque renowned for excellence, she offers an airy interior and a versatile three-stateroom layout with crew accommodations—perfect for cruising with family, hosting guests, or enjoying extended weekends on the water.

Constructed in GRP with a planing modified-V hull, she delivers the polished fit and finish Ferretti Yachts is known for, paired with strong owner-operator appeal in the 50-foot class. She presents as a well-appointed, comfortable late-model flybridge yacht, distinguished by above-average interior joinery, very light machinery time (50 hours) on twin Cummins diesels, and Seakeeper stabilization. With the seller already committed to his next yacht, this creates a timely opportunity to acquire a highly desirable Ferretti 500 available in the U.S. without the wait of a new build.
