OVERVIEW

ANDROMEDA, a 2023 Azimut 50 Fly, captures the spirit of Italian craftsmanship and the clever exploitation of volume that define Azimut Yachts. Styled by Stefano Righini, her profile is clean and contemporary, and expansive panoramic salon glazing bathes the interior in light, imparting an airy ambience seldom encountered on yachts of this length. The arrangement suits both passagemaking and convivial living, pairing a generous flybridge with a welcoming aft-deck dining area and a serene three-cabin layout centered on a full-beam owner's suite. Propelled by twin Volvo Penta D11s with joystick control, ANDROMEDA delivers composed performance and straightforward, confident owner-operator handling. Lightly enjoyed and meticulously maintained, she is a rare, late-model luxury flybridge motor yacht that unites refined design with effortless, stress-free cruising.
